

Acknowledgements

We gratefully acknowledge the support of our funders and those who gave in-kind support, without whom this conference would not have been possible:

Greater Johannesburg Metropolitan Council

Institute for Security Studies

Minister for Safety and Security

National Secretariat for Safety and Security

European Union Delegation to South Africa

EU Conference, Workshops and Cultural Initiatives Fund

United Nations Centre for Human Settlements (Habitat)

International Centre for the Prevention of Crime

United Nations Urban Management Programme

Business Against Crime

European Forum on Urban Security

United States National Crime Prevention Council

Gauteng Provincial Secretariat for Safety and Security

Crime Concern (UK)

South African Police Service

Gauteng Association of Local Authorities

Kempton Park Tembisa Metropolitan Local Council

National Institute for Crime Prevention and Rehabilitation of Offenders

British High Commission in South Africa

British Department for International Development

Royal Netherlands Embassy

Embassy of France in South Africa

Open Society Foundation

United States Information Service

Eysink, Smeets and Etman
Protea Hotels

Sanlam

South African Breweries

We would like to acknowledge the conference staff who made the conference a success, in particular:

Claude Vezina of the International Centre for the Prevention of Crime
Franz Vanderschueren of UN Habitat

Mark Shaw, Musa Maphatana, Margaret Roper and Philip Nel of the South African Department of Safety and Security

Rory Robertshaw, Nisha Moodley, Hillow Maeko and Beverley Holmes of the Greater Johannesburg Metropolitan Council

Barbara Holtmann and Brent Kearney of Business Against Crime-Gauteng

Ian Robertson of the Gauteng Provincial Secretariat for Safety and Security

Harvey Phalatsi of the GJMC Mayor's office

Jean Lausberg and Ulinda Brits of MCS-Africa

Sarah Oppler, Antoinette Louw, Lala Camerer, Siphon Ntuli and Lerato Thobejane of the Institute for Security Studies