- 58 The recent arrest and charging of Dutch national Gus Kouwenhoven on Monday

- 21 March 2005 highlighted this issue again. Kouwenhoven has been charged with breaking the United Nations Security Council (UNSC) imposed arms embargo on Liberia, and is suspected of being linked with war crimes according to the Dutch prosecutorial authorities. The UN Expert Panel has detailed that Kouwenhoeven, President of the Oriental Timber Company, was closely associated with Charles Taylor and sold him weapons.
